June 29-30, 2009: Lake Superior Expedition – Sail Away from Bay to Bay

This year's tall ship expedition is now within reach of more people and more wallets. Our original 2009 program was planned before the economy hit some rough seas. A course correction was in order so we created an intensive but affordable 2-day expedition which will start and end in Houghton after visiting Keweenaw Bay, Huron Bay and Bete Grise Bay. For educators looking for a Continuing Education opportunity, Michigan Technological University offers 1 credit for an additional fee. This is not a pleasure cruise but a hands-on experience where you will learn the rigging and traditional sailing techniques of a 3-masted Great Lakes schooner and USCG certified sailing school vessel. Everyone raises sail and takes a turn at the wheel! This adventure will take the S/V Denis Sullivan past several of the region's historic lighthouses, the backdrop for learning about Lake Superior's maritime history, aquatic ecology, and the Keweenaw's past, present, and future.

Expedition Cost: $400/person, plus $125 for MTU tuition/registration if participating for credit
