The Black Student Associations

Presents...

"Black People in Focus:
Educating Blacks in America"

Black Enrollment at Michigan Tech -- How Far Have We Come?
Wednesday February 1, 6:00-7:30pm, 1st floor Library
This timeline display will trace the history and experiences of Black students on Michigan Tech's campus.

Access and Opportunities for Blacks in Silicon Valley
Thursday February 16, 6:00-7:30pm, Fisher 138
Haji Flemings, Michigan Tech alum and entrepreneur, will give his perspective on Black student access to education, entrepreneurship, and share his experience on CNN's Black in America: The New Promised Land Silicon Valley.

Waiting for Superman
Wednesday February 22, 6:00-8:30pm, M&G U115
Film and discussion -- A documentary focusing on the public education charter school lottery system.

Addressing "Sense of Belonging" for Minorities in STEM
Thursday February 23, 12:00-1:00pm, Fisher 230
Lunch and learn -- Tech alum, Kari L. Jordan, will provide a lecture addressing the STEM community and narratives from minority students who have successfully become "members" and those who have not. Please RSVP to Lori Weir (llweir@mtu.edu) by February 21.

African Night!
Saturday February 25, 7:30-10:00pm, Rozsa Center for the Performing Arts
Ndangariro (We Remember) -- This performance will reflect on some of the most significant periods throughout African history. Contact the Rozsa Center for pricing and tickets 487-3200.

Events from 2/1 - 2/23 are free and open to the public.

For questions and/or concerns contact Tayloria Adams at nadams@mtu.edu.

Sponsored by the Center for Diversity and Inclusion
Michigan Technological University is an equal opportunity educational institution/equal opportunity employer.